

International and Comparative Mineral Law and Policy Trends and Prospects

Edited by
Elizabeth Bastida,
Thomas Wälde and
Janeth Warden-Fernández

KLUWER LAW
INTERNATIONAL

International Energy and Resources Law and Policy Series

International and Comparative Mineral Law and Policy

Trends and Prospects

Series Editors

General Editor

Professor Thomas W. Wälde, Jean-Monnet Chair of European Economic and Energy Law, Centre for Energy, Petroleum & Mineral Law & Policy, University of Dundee, UK (www.cepmlp.org/fwwalde@aol.com)

Editorial Board

Professor Paul Stevens, CEPMLP

Chris Rogers, Principal Research Fellow, CEPMLP

Dr. Z. Gao, Honorary Lecturer, Director of Beijing Institute of Marine Policy

Stephen Dow, Lecturer in Energy Law, CEPMLP

Dr. Philip Andrews-Speed, Director, CEPMLP

Professor William F. Fox, Dean, Columbus School of Law, Catholic University of America, Washington DC, USA

Professor Rosalyn Higgins, QC, Judge, International Court of Justice, The Hague, the Netherlands

Dr. Kamal Hossain, Dr. Kamal Hossein. and Associates, Dhaka, Bangladesh

Professor Eugene M. Khartukov, MGIMO, Moscow, Russia

The titles published in this series are listed at the end of this volume.

International Energy and Resources Law and Policy Series

International and Comparative Mineral Law and Policy

Trends and Prospects

Edited by

Elizabeth Bastida

Thomas Wälde

and

Janeth Warden-Fernández

KLUWER LAW

INTERNATIONAL

Published by:
Kluwer Law International
P.O. Box 85889
2508 CN The Hague
The Netherlands

Sold and distributed in North, Central and South America by:
Aspen Publishers, Inc.
7201 McKinney Circle
Frederick, MD 21704
USA

Sold and distributed in all other countries by:
Extenza-Turpin Distribution Services
Stratton Business Park
Pegasus Drive
Biggleswade
Bedfordshire SG18 8TQ
United Kingdom

A C.I.P. catalogue record for this book is available from the Library of Congress.

Printed on acid-free paper

Typeset by Steve Lambley Information Design, The Hague.

ISBN 90-411-2116-1
© 2005 Kluwer Law International

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise, without prior written permission of the publishers.

Permission to use this content must be obtained from the copyright owner. Please apply to: Kluwer Law International, Rights and Permissions Department, P.O. Box 85889, 2508 CN The Hague, The Netherlands. E-mail: permissions@kluwerlaw.com.
Website: www.kluwerlaw.com

This project has been made possible by the support of Rio Tinto plc and the Petroleum, Mineral, Energy and Natural Resources Law Education Trust. The selection of authors and topics was exclusively based on the editors' criteria, with no influence from the publication's supporters.

Disclaimer: The views expressed in this book are solely those of each of its individual contributors. They should not be taken as reflecting the views neither of the editors, the CEPMLP, Rio Tinto plc or the Petroleum, Mineral, Energy and Natural Resources Law Education Trust. In no event, including negligence on the part of the authors, editors, the CEPMLP, the publication supporters or the publisher, will the authors, editors, the CEPMLP, the publication supporters or the publisher be liable for any direct, indirect, or consequential damages from the use of this material.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The editors wish to acknowledge the infinite patience of all the contributors during the editing of this Compendium, since the first contributions were received by the end of 2002. This has been an arduous task that took much longer than expected due to a variety of reasons. In the first instance, on account of the varied languages involved that had to be translated into English, and secondly because of the need to standardise the articles in a set format; this generated an enormous amount of work for the editors and those who kindly assisted them. Nevertheless, we truly believe that the delay will finally pay off. Certainly this Compendium will offer the reader a variety of topics which are discussed by the most knowledgeable professionals in each field. The contributors are drawn from various walks of life, academia, governments, mining companies and practitioners and this book is indebted to their knowledge.

We owe Rio Tinto and the Petroleum, Mineral, Energy and Natural Resources Law Education Trust a great debt of gratitude for their financial assistance to make this book possible. We would like to emphasise that the selection of authors and topics was exclusively based on the editors' criteria, with no influence from the publication's supporters.

The editors would also like to express their gratitude to Dr Arthur Warden, for his constant assistance and support, and to Melissa Holzberger, Barbara Vons and Roque Romero who, as research assistants, devoted their time to provide professional assistance with the review of the various contributions. Gratefully acknowledgment is also due to Dr. Philip Andrews-Speed, the Centre for Energy, Petroleum and Mineral Law and Policy's Head of Department, for his encouragement and support for this publication.

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	vii
------------------------	-----

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS	xxvii
----------------------------	-------

INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW

INTERNATIONAL AND COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVES OF MINERAL LAW AND POLICY	1
Elizabeth Bastida, Thomas Wälde and Janeth Warden-Fernández

CHAPTER 1

TRENDS AND ISSUES IN MINERAL LAW: INTERNATIONAL AND COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVES

1.1. LEGAL REFORM IN MINING: PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE	37
John P. Williams

Executive Summary	37
1. Introduction	38
2. Past Legal Reforms	40
3. Present Trends in Mining Law Reform	47
4. The Next Wave of Reforms in Mining Law	60
5. Conclusion	68
Selected Bibliography	70

1.2. SAFEGUARDS FOR FOREIGN INVESTMENT IN MINING	73
Robert Pritchard

Executive Summary	73
1. How Do Investors Make Mining Investment Decisions?	74
2. How the Requirements of Project Finance and Bankability Complicate Mining Investment Decisions	76
3. The Most Feared Legal Risk of Mining Investors: Adverse Change of Law	80
4. Adherence to the Rule of Law	83
5. Treaty Protection	84

6. Constitutional Recognition of Property Rights and Rights of Foreign Investors	88
7. Investment Agreements with Governments	89
8. Joint Ventures	89
9. Political Risk Insurance	94
10. The Importance of Utmost Probity	96
11. Conclusions	96
Selected Bibliography	97

1.3. INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION: A LESSON LEARNT FROM ANGLO-US MINING CONCESSIONS IN SOVIET RUSSIA (1920-1925) 99

V.V. Veeder

Executive Summary	99
1. The False Starts: Vanderlip (1920), Vint (1921-24), Sinclair (1921-23) and Hammer (1921)	100
2. The Urquhart Negotiations (1921-1922)	105
3. The 1925 Soviet-German Treaty	116
4. The Lena Goldfields Concession Agreement (1925)	118
5. Conclusions	123
Bibliography	124

1.4. INTERNATIONAL LAW AND MINERAL RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT 127

George (Rock) Pring and Linda Siegele

Executive Summary	127
1. The Changing View of the Industry	128
2. Sustainable Development in Mining	129
3. How International Law Works	130
4. Moving from 'Soft Law' to 'Hard Law'	130
5. How National Courts 'Harden' Soft Law	131
6. How IFOs Create Hard Law	131
7. International Environmental Soft Law for Mining	132
8. Other IGO Soft Law-Making Efforts	135
9. Private Sector Contributions to Soft Law	135
10. Mining Access Control Laws	137
11. Mining Process Controls	141
12. Product Controls	143
13. Conclusion	145
Selected Bibliography	146

1.5. MINING AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT: INSIGHTS FROM INTERNATIONAL LAW 149

Maria Cecilia G. Dalupan

Executive Summary	149
1. Introduction	151
2. Mining in Multilateral Agreements	152
3. International Law on Sustainable Development and Mining	160
4. Principles of Sustainability in Mining – the Challenge of Relevance and Applicability	164
5. Conclusions	167
Selected Bibliography	168

1.6. INTERNATIONAL SEABED AUTHORITY REGULATIONS ON PROSPECTING AND EXPLORATION FOR POLYMETALLIC NODULES IN THE AREA 171

Michael W. Lodge

Executive Summary	171
1. The Legal Regime for the Area	172
2. Background to the Regulations	178
3. Analysis of the Regulations	181
4. Conclusions	194
Select Bibliography	195

1.7. EVOLUTION OF GLOBAL STANDARDS IN THE EXTRACTIVE SECTOR: THE GROWING ROLE OF THE WORLD BANK GROUP 197

Luke J. Danielson

Executive Summary	197
1. A Global Governance Gap	199
2. Filling the Governance Gap	202
3. A Vision of the Where We Might Be Going	204
4. Developments in the World Bank Group	208
5. The Need for Better Governance	214
Selected Bibliography	216
Appendices	217

1.8. INTERNATIONAL STANDARDS: A PROFESSIONAL CHALLENGE FOR NATURAL RESOURCES & ENERGY LAWYERS 219

Thomas W. Wälde

Executive Summary	219
1. Introduction: From 'Hard Law' to 'Soft Law' in the Global Natural Resources & Energy Industries	220
2. Relevance of International Standards in Transnational Dispute Practice	222

3. Key Players	225
4. Do the Natural Resource and Energy Industries Need a Special 'License to Operate' Expressed in more Stringent International Standards	233
5. Practical Management of International Standards	242
1.9. MINERAL DEVELOPMENT AND THE IMPACT OF THE CLIMATE CHANGE CONVENTION	249
George (Rock) Pring and Linda Siegele
Executive Summary	249
1. The Science Behind Climate Change	250
2. The United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC)	253
3. The Kyoto Protocol	255
4. Investing in Clean Development – Current State of the Industry	258
5. Conclusions	263
Selected Bibliography	263
1.10. THE LAW OF PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN GLOBAL MINING	265
George (Rock) Pring and Linda Siegele
Executive Summary	265
1. The Conceptual and Historical Framework	266
2. Public Participation Requirements in International Environmental Law Documents	269
3. Public Participation Rights under Other Legal and Quasi-legal Regimes	273
4. Participation Rights of Particular Groups	275
5. Potential Future Developments in the Law of Public Participation	277
6. Conclusions	279
Selected Bibliography	279
1.11. HOST STATE LEGAL AND POLICY RESPONSES TO RESOURCE CONTROL CLAIMS BY HOST COMMUNITIES: IMPLICATIONS FOR INVESTMENT IN THE NATURAL RESOURCES SECTOR.....	283
George S. Akpan
Executive Summary	283
1. Introduction	283
2. Resource Control and Legal Bases for Resource Control Claims	285
3. Self-Determination and Resource Control	286
4. Host State Policy Responses and Implications for Investment in the Resources Sector	300
6. Recommendations	305
Selected Bibliography	307

1.12. HOST COMMUNITY HOSTILITY TO MINING PROJECTS: A NEW GENERATION OF RISK? 311

George S. Akpan

Executive Summary	311
1. Introduction	311
2. Host Community Hostility as a New Form of Risk	312
3. Forms of Host Community Risk	314
4. Impacts of Host Community Hostility Risk	319
5. Legal Responsibility for Host Community Conducts	321
6. Managing Host Community Hostility: Policy Options	326
Selected Bibliography	328

1.13. SOCIO-CULTURAL DUE DILIGENCE IN THE MINING INDUSTRY .. 331

Jennifer Cook Clark

Executive Summary	331
1. Introduction	333
2. The Socio-cultural Due Diligence Process: the Who, Why, When, Where, and How?	336
3. Step 1: Analysis of Legal Framework to Determine Exposure to Liability	337
4. Step 2: Review of Underlying Base-Line Studies, Impact and Risk Assessments	343
5. Step 3: Management Plans, Monitoring, Auditing, Crises/Emergency and Closure Plans	345
6. Conclusions	349
Selected Bibliography	350

1.14. SECURITY OF MINERAL TENURE: TIME-LIMITS 353

James Otto

Executive Summary	353
1. The Regulatory Dilemma	353
2. Typical Mining Project Gestation Periods	354
3. The Gestation Period, Security of Tenure and Regulation	362
4. Examples of Legislative Approaches Addressing the Exploration Phase Time Dilemma	366
5. Summary and Recommendations	370
Selected Bibliography	372

1.15. TITLE REGISTRATION IN COMMON LAW JURISDICTIONS 375

Barry Barton

Executive Summary	375
1. Introduction	375
2. Different Kinds of Dealings in Mineral Properties and Different Systems for Registering Them	376

3. Restrictions on Dealings	378
4. General Principles of Priority	379
5. Mining Legislation on the Effect of Recording on Priorities	381
6. Whether Mineral Rights are Interests in Land	384
7. Conclusions	385
Selected Bibliography	386

1.16. DUE DILIGENCE IN TRANSNATIONAL MINING PROJECTS: MINING REGISTRIES AND LEGAL OPINION ISSUES 389

Cecilia Siac

Executive Summary	389
1. Attributes of Workable Land and Mining Registries	390
2. Due Diligence in Developing Countries	394
3. The Need for Reform	397
4. Conclusions	397
Selected Bibliography	398

1.17. THE POWER OF PERCEPTION: IS THE TRUST OF THE MINING INDUSTRY IN TITLE RECORD-KEEPING JUSTIFIED? 399

Hans Wabnitz

Executive Summary	399
1. Registration of Mining Titles is Essential	399
2. Why the Registered Right May No Longer Exist	403
3. What is the Solution?	405
Selected Bibliography	407

1.18. MINERAL LAW: NEW DIRECTIONS? 409

Elizabeth Bastida

Executive Summary	409
1. Introduction	410
2. The Traditional Model of Mineral Law	411
3. The Current Governance Context for Minerals Resource Development	415
4. Implications for Mineral Law: New Directions?	418
Selected Bibliography	423

CHAPTER 2ACTORS AND POLICIES IN THE MINERALS INDUSTRY:
SETTING PRIORITIES FOR THE FUTURE

2.1. PLAYERS IN THE MINERAL INDUSTRY	429
Olle Östensson
Executive Summary	429
1. Introduction	431
2. The International Mining Industry	432
3. Governments	437
4. Local Communities and Indigenous Peoples	439
5. Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs)	442
6. Intergovernmental Organisations	444
7. Contacts and Links Between Groups of Stakeholders	446
Selected Bibliography	447
2.2. CORPORATE STRATEGIES IN THE GLOBAL MINING INDUSTRY ..	451
David Humphreys
Executive Summary	451
1. Introduction	452
2. Drivers of Corporate Strategy	452
3. Corporate Responses	458
4. Future Directions	465
Selected Bibliography	467
2.3. STRUCTURAL CHANGES IN THE MINERALS INDUSTRY	469
Magnus Ericsson
Executive Summary	469
1. Merger Mania	469
2. What is the Minerals Industry?	471
3. Minerals Industry Structure	472
4. Mergers and Acquisitions	484
5. The Future?	491
Selected Bibliography	492
2.4. MINERAL POLICY: A WORLD BANK PERSPECTIVE	493
Paulo de Sa
Executive Summary	493
1. Introduction	494
2. Formulating a Sound Mineral Policy	495
3. The Four Building Blocks of an Effective Policy	497
4. The Role of the World Bank	502

5. The Challenge Ahead: Achieving Sustainability	502
Selected Bibliography	504
2.5. TOWARDS A SUSTAINABLE ROLE FOR ARTISANAL AND SMALL-SCALE MINING IN MINERAL PRODUCTION	505
Norman S. Jennings
Executive Summary	505
1. Introduction	505
2. What is ASM?	506
3. What is Produced?	508
4. ASM's Constraints	509
5. Who are the Players?	509
6. Evolution of Attention Towards ASM	511
7. Addressing the Issues	512
8. Towards Best Practice	513
9. Conclusions	514
Selected Bibliography	515
2.6. TRENDS AND DIRECTIONS IN MINING TAXATION IN THE 2000s . .	517
Keith Brewer
Executive Summary	517
1. Introduction	518
2. Economic Pressures on Taxation of Profits	519
3. Past Rates of Tax on Profits	519
4. Current Situation of Taxes Aimed at Profits	524
5. Non-Profit Taxes and 'Other Types of Intervention' by Government	526
6. Future Trends in Taxation will be Heavily Influenced by 'Sustainable Development' Pressures and a Trend Towards More Precise Definitions of 'Rights'	526
7. Conclusions	529
Selected Bibliography	530
2.7. THE USE OF THE BOND MARKETS IN MINING FINANCE	531
C. Richard Tinsley
Executive Summary	531
1. Introduction	531
2. Project Finance	533
3. Commodity Bonds	533
4. Mining's 144A Issues	534
5. Other Capital Markets Issues	535
6. Legal Aspects of Bond Issues and Risks	535
7. Political Risk Cover	536
8. Environmental Risk	537
9. Risk Tolerance	538

10. Ratings Issues	538
11. Other Issues	539
12. Conclusions	540
Selected Bibliography	540

2.8. GOVERNMENT DECENTRALISATION AND RESOURCE REVENUE SHARING..... 549

Allen L. Clark

Executive Summary	549
1. Introduction	551
2. The Nature of Decentralisation	552
3. The Nature of Mineral Resource Revenues	553
4. Impacts of Decentralisation, Revenue Sharing and Resource Development Projects	557
5. The Ongoing Philippines and Indonesian Experiences	558
6. Summary and Conclusions	566
Selected Bibliography	567

2.9. THE 'RESOURCE CURSE' 569

William Ascher

Executive Summary	569
1. Introduction	570
2. Negative Pathways Between Natural Resource Exploitation and Economic and Political Development	570
3. The Debate	577
4. The Empirical Record	579
5. Conclusions	584
Selected Bibliography	587

2.10. MINING AND REGIONAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT..... 589

Nicolas Di Boscio and David Humphreys

Executive Summary	589
1. Introduction	590
2. Contributions to the Economy	592
3. The Nature of Mining Contributions	594
4. Economic Linkages	599
5. Multipliers	602
6. Final Remarks	603
Selected Bibliography	605

2.11. OLD WINE IN NEW BOTTLES: POLICY ISSUES FOR THE MINING INDUSTRY	607
Phillip Crowson
Executive Summary	607
1. Introduction	608
2. Three Basic Fallacies about Mineral Production	610
3. Mining is an Economic Activity	611
4. Mining is not Unique	611
5. Missionaries and NGOs	612
6. Render Unto Caesar ...	613
7. Low Profitability is the Root of All Most Evil	614
8. Consumption Might have been Over-Stimulated	615
9. No Man Can Serve Two Masters ...	616
10. Are Codes of Conduct Desirable, or a Blind Alley?	617
11. Conclusions	618
Selected Bibliography	619
 2.12. SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT INDICATORS FOR THE MINERALS INDUSTRY: WHO NEEDS THEM? WHAT STAKES JUSTIFY PRODUCING THEM?	621
Alain L. Dangeard
Executive Summary	621
1. Transparency in the Extractive Industries	622
2. Indicators of Economic, Social and Environmental Performance	623
3. Policy Formulation	624
4. Concluding Remarks: Do We Need Predictive Indicators for Systemic Crisis?	626
 2.13. MINE CLOSURE: THE 21ST CENTURY APPROACH – AVOIDING FUTURE ABANDONED MINES	627
Wanda M.A. Hoskin
Executive Summary	627
1. Overview of International Considerations Related to Mine Closure	628
2. Environmental Liability and Site Rehabilitation	630
3. Abandoned Mines – the Legacy of Inappropriate, Insufficient and Non-Existent Mine Closure	632
4. Mine Rehabilitation for Environment and Health Protection – Training	633
5. Financial Issues	634
6. Social Issues	635
7. Institutional and Legal Issues	635
8. Future Issues	636
9. Conclusions	637
Selected Bibliography	638

CHAPTER 3 MINERAL LAW POLICY. REGIONAL PERSPECTIVES

3.1. AUSTRALIA, CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES

3.1.1. THE HISTORY OF MINING LAW IN THE US, CANADA, NEW ZEALAND AND AUSTRALIA, AND THE RIGHT OF FREE ENTRY 643

Barry Barton

Executive Summary	643
1. Introduction	644
2. The United States	645
3. Canada	648
4. Australia	653
5. New Zealand	655
6. The Significance of History	657
Selected Bibliography	658

3.1.2. INDIGENOUS LAND RIGHTS AND THEIR IMPACT ON THE MINERALS INDUSTRY: THE AUSTRALIAN EXPERIENCE 661

Michael Hunt

Executive Summary	661
1. Validity of Granted Mineral Titles	662
2. Applications for Mineral Titles	663
3. Compensation	672
4. Negotiating a Native Title Agreement	676
5. Aboriginal Heritage	679
Selected Bibliography	680

3.1.3. MINING AGREEMENTS IN THE REGULATION OF THE AUSTRALIAN MINERALS SECTOR 681

Anne Fitzgerald

Executive Summary	681
1. Overview	682
2. Use of Mining Agreements by the States and Territories	684
3. The Substantive Provisions of Mining Agreements	686
4. Comparison with Other Contractual and Legislative Models	689
5. Regulatory Effect of Government-Developer Agreements	691
6. Reasons for Use	691
7. Conclusion	692
Selected Bibliography	694

3.1.4. MYTH OR REALITY – HAS ENVIRONMENTAL REGULATION DESTROYED THE US MINING INDUSTRY? 697

Robert A. Bassett and Ricardo Ihnen Becker

Executive Summary	697
1. Introduction	697
2. Legal Framework for Mining in the United States	698
3. Laws Concerning Environmental Impact of Mining in the US	699
4. Adaptation of the US Mining Industry to Environmental Legislation	704
5. Conclusion	708
Selected Bibliography	709

3.1.5. CANADIAN IMPACT AND BENEFIT AGREEMENTS WITH LOCAL AND INDIGENOUS PEOPLE 713

John Donihee and Alastair R. Lucas

Executive Summary	713
1. Introduction	713
2. Impact and Benefit Agreements	714
3. The Impact and Benefit Agreement Concept	715
4. Legal Nature of IBAs	716
5. Drivers for IBAs	717
6. Trends in the Use of IBAs	721
7. Conclusions	725
Selected Bibliography	725

3.1.6. BONDING REQUIREMENTS FOR COAL AND HARD-ROCK MINES IN THE US 727

James Boyd

Executive Summary	727
1. Introduction	727
2. The Benefits of Bonding and Other Forms of Assurance	728
3. The US Mining Industry's Reclamation Record	729
4. Recent Changes in Policy	731
5. The Politics of Assurance Regulation	732
6. Designing Improved Assurance Regulations	733
7. Conclusion	738
Selected Bibliography	739

3.2. LATIN AMERICA

3.2.1. THE LATIN AMERICAN MINING LAW MODEL 741

John P. Williams

Executive Summary	741
1. Origins of the Model	743
2. Key Features of the Model	744
3. Conclusion	756
Selected Bibliography	757

3.2.2. RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN LATIN AMERICAN MINING LEGISLATION 759

Juan Luis Ossa

Executive Summary	759
1. Introduction: the Scenario Prior to 1998	759
2. Changes from 1998 Onwards	761
3. Some Specific Comments on the Legal Requirements to Retain the Concessions	766
4. Conclusions	768
Selected Bibliography	768

3.2.3. THE MINING INTEGRATION TREATY BETWEEN ARGENTINA AND CHILE: SHARING EXPERIENCES 769

Silvia Bauni

Executive Summary	769
1. Historical Background	769
2. The Treaty	772
3. The Administration Commission	776
4. The Relevance of the Treaty	778
5. Conclusions	779
Selected Bibliography	780

3.2.4. DECENTRALISATION AND MINING: COLOMBIA AND PERU 783

Anida Yupari

Executive Summary	783
1. Decentralisation: a General Overview	784
2. Decentralisation in Colombia and Peru	785
3. Sub-National Governments in Mining Issues in Colombia and Peru	791
4. Conclusions	797
Selected Bibliography	798

3.3. AFRICA3.3.1. THE CHALLENGES OF DEVELOPMENT, MINING CODES IN AFRICA AND CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITY 801

Bonnie Campbell, with the collaboration of Pascale Hatcher, Ariane Lafortune, Bruno Sarasin, Thomas Akabzaa and Paula Butler

Executive Summary	801
1. Introduction	802
2. The Creation of New Regulatory and Fiscal Frameworks for Mining in Africa	803
3. Three Generations of Mining Codes	810
4. Conclusions	816
Selected Bibliography	820

3.3.2. COMPARATIVE INTERNATIONAL AND AFRICAN MINERAL LAW AS APPLIED IN THE FORMATION OF THE NEW SOUTH AFRICAN MINERAL DEVELOPMENT LEGISLATION 823

Michael Dale

Executive Summary	823
1. Background to the New South African Mineral Development Legislation	824
2. State Sovereignty and Custodianship	826
3. Nature, Registrability, Transferability and Bondability of the Rights	827
4. Various Administrative Law Principles	831
5. Further Aspects of Security and Continuity of Tenure	835
6. Right to Administrative Appeal, Judicial Review and Judicial Appeal	838
7. Aspects Related to the Environment, Land Use, and Aboriginal Claims	839
8. Financial Aspects	841
9. The Fate of Existing Rights: the Transitional Provisions	843
10. Classification of Minerals	845
11. Clear Statement of Rights and Obligations	846
12. Broad-Based Socio-Economic Empowerment Charter	847
13. Conclusion	849
Selected Bibliography	850

3.3.3. THE FRAMEWORK FOR OFFSHORE DIAMOND MINING IN NAMIBIA 853

Leon Edward Möller

Executive Summary	853
1. Introduction	853
2. Background of Offshore Diamond Mining in Namibia	854
3. Overview of the Legal Framework for Offshore Diamond Mining	857
4. The Regional Perspective of Mining Activities	867

5. Conclusion	870
Selected Bibliography	870
3.3.4. RECENT TRENDS IN MINING LEGISLATION IN FRENCH-SPEAKING AFRICAN COUNTRIES.....	875
Thierry M. Lauriol
Executive Summary	875
1. Introduction	875
2. The Enactment of New Mining Codes	877
3. The Development of Other Legislation Applicable to Mining Operations	881
4. Conclusion: the Emergence of a Global Position	884
Selected Bibliography	886
3.3.5. COMPARATIVE MINERAL LAW IN AFRICAN PORTUGUESE-SPEAKING COUNTRIES.....	887
Latifa Ibraimo
Executive Summary	887
1. Introduction	887
2. The Mining Legal Frameworks in Angola and Mozambique	888
3. Conclusion	899
Selected Bibliography	900
3.4. ASIA AND THE SOUTH PACIFIC
3.4.1. THE ROLE OF LAND-OWNING COMMUNITIES IN PAPUA NEW GUINEA'S MINERAL POLICY FRAMEWORK	903
Colin Filer
Executive Summary	903
1. Introduction	904
2. Mineral Rights and Royalty Payments	907
3. Landowner Identification and Representation	910
4. Landowner Compensation	915
5. Community Benefit Packages	920
6. From Social Impacts to Sustainable Development	926
Selected Bibliography	930
3.4.2. MINING IN THE PHILIPPINES: A DEVELOPING COUNTRY'S DILEMMA	933
Maria Cecilia G. Dalupan
Executive Summary	933
1. Introduction	935

2. Mining Policy Background and Overview	936
3. Mining and the Development Dilemma	938
4. Dissecting the Dilemma: Policy Responses	943
5. Conclusion: Policy and Implementation Issues	949
Selected Bibliography	951

3.4.3. THE TRADE-OFF BETWEEN A COUNTRY'S OBLIGATION TO PROTECT THE ENVIRONMENTAL RIGHTS OF ITS CITIZENS AND ITS DESIRE TO MAXIMISE THE ECONOMIC BENEFITS THAT FLOW FROM MINING OPERATIONS – THE OK TEDI SAGA 953

Amaechi Nwokoo

Executive Summary	953
1. Introduction	954
2. Discovery and Early Development	954
3. Environmental Impact	957
4. The Ok Tedi Case	960
5. The Withdrawal of BHP	962
6. Legal and Other Implications of BHP's Withdrawal	963
7. Conclusion	966
Selected Bibliography	966

3.5. THE FSU

3.5.1. STATE REGULATION AND MINING LAW DEVELOPMENT IN CONTEMPORARY RUSSIA 969

Alexander Kursky and Andrei Konoplyanik

Executive Summary	969
1. Mining Legislation of Present Russia	969
2. The State Subsoil Licensing System	978
3. Specific Features of Granting the Subsoil Use Rights During Conclusion of PSAs	986
4. Taxes, Charges, and Other Payments for Subsoil Use	995
5. On the Trends of the Russian Subsoil Legislation Reform in 2003 and Beyond	1000

3.5.2. COMPARATIVE MINERAL LAW OF THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION AND CENTRAL ASIAN REPUBLICS 1009

Marla Valdez and Serik Baimagambetov

Executive Summary	1009
1. Introduction	1011
2. General Laws Governing the Subsurface	1011
3. Ownership of the Subsurface	1013
4. Delimitation of Authority of State Agencies in the Sphere of Subsurface Use	1014
5. Security of Tenure	1016

6. Types of Subsurface Use	1016
7. Terms of Subsurface Use	1017
8. Basis for Granting the Right for Subsurface Use: Subsurface Use Licences and Contracts	1019
9. Procedure for Granting Subsurface Use Rights and Tender Requirements	1019
10. Assignment of Rights	1021
11. Rights and Obligations of Subsurface Users and Local Content Requirement	1022
12. Priority Right of the State to Purchase Raw Minerals	1024
13. Termination and Suspension of the Subsurface Use Right	1024
14. Contract Stabilisation	1026
15. Geological Information on Subsurface	1030
16. State Expert Evaluation	1030
17. State Register of Deposits and State Balance Sheet of Minerals	1031
18. Reclamation and Conservation	1032
19. Payments for Subsurface Use	1032
20. Conclusions	1033
Selected Bibliography	1034

3.6. EUROPEAN UNION

3.6.1. MINING LAW IN GERMANY 1037

Johann-Christian Pielow

Executive Summary	1037
1. Introduction	1039
2. Mining Law within a 'Federal' Framework	1043
3. The Scope of the Federal Mining Act	1045
4. The Legal System of the Mining Permits	1049
5. Mining Operation	1051
6. Conclusion	1062
Selected Bibliography	1062

3.6.2. INTERFACE BETWEEN MINERAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL LEGISLATION: THE EXAMPLE OF SWEDEN AS AN HISTORIC MINING COUNTRY IN THE EUROPEAN UNION 1067

Eva Liedholm Johnson

Executive Summary	1067
1. Extraction of Minerals and the Emergence of Environmental Land Legislation	1068
2. Environmental Considerations in the Context of the Mining Law Process from Prospecting to Mining	1072
3. Conclusion	1078
Selected Bibliography	1079

3.6.3. AN OVERVIEW OF THE LEGAL REGIME FOR MINERAL DEVELOPMENT IN THE UNITED KINGDOM 1081

Peter G. Morgan

Executive Summary	1081
1. Introduction	1081
2. History and Background	1082
3. Mineral Ownership and Associated Rights	1084
4. Title and Tenure	1087
5. Development Rights	1090
6. Conclusion	1093
Selected Bibliography	1093

3.6.4. EUROPEAN COMMUNITY LEGISLATION ON MINING: RECENT INITIATIVES 1095

Lene Madsen

Executive Summary	1095
1. Introduction	1096
2. Current EC Legislation Affecting the Mining Sector	1097
3. Accidents and the Response of the EC	1100
4. Three Proposed Initiatives	1102
5. Conclusion	1108
Selected Bibliography	1109

INDEX 1111

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

George S. Akpan, LLB (Hons, University of Uyo, Nigeria); LLM (University of Lagos, Nigeria); LLM in Petroleum Law & Policy (CEPMLP/Dundee); PhD in Foreign Investment and Natural Resources Law (National University of Singapore) is a member of the Nigerian Bar Association; he taught law at the University of Uyo, Nigeria, and he was a Research Scholar/Graduate Fellow at the Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore. Until recently he was a law lecturer in the University of West Indies LL.B Programme at the College of the Bahamas. He has served as a consultant to UNCTAD. He has published and spoken at conferences and seminars on issues in natural resources and foreign investment law. E-mail addresses: kpanekeke@hotmail.com or lawp8070@nus.edu.sg.

William Ascher is the Donald C. McKenna Professor of Government and Economics, and Dean of the Faculty, at Claremont McKenna College. At Duke University's Center for International Development Research from 1985 to 2000, his research culminated in books on Natural Resource Policy-Making in Developing Countries; Why Governments Waste Natural Resources; and The Caspian Sea: A Quest for Environmental Security.

Barry Barton is Professor of Law at the University of Waikato, Hamilton, New Zealand. His field is natural resources, energy and environmental law. He was previously associated with the Canadian Institute of Resources Law in Calgary, and is author of Canadian Law of Mining, 1993.

Serik Baimagambetov has been working at Denton Wilde Sapte for 6 years advising clients in the mineral resources sector in Kazakhstan and has advised on a number of mineral acquisitions. He also specialises in property law and licensing for mineral projects. Prior to joining the firm, he worked for the Ministry of Justice in the department of immovable property. Serik is the Honorary Legal Adviser to British HM Ambassador to Kazakhstan. E-mail address: almaty@dentonwildesapte.com.

Robert A. Basset practices natural resources and international law with an emphasis on the mining industry at Holland & Hart, LLP, Denver, Colorado, www.hollandhart.com. He has worked with the mining industry for 20 years representing clients in Alaska, New Mexico, and Colorado, and in Europe, Latin America, Africa and Canada. His work has included acquisition of companies and properties, public land law, regulatory, transportation, processing, sales, corporate and litigation matters. Formerly, he was an attorney for Cyprus Minerals Company in its worldwide industrial minerals and coal operations. Mr Bassett is a Trustee of the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation, an adjunct professor of International Mining Law and Policy at the University of Denver College of Law, and a lecturer on mining agreements at CEPMLP/Dundee. E-mail address: BBassett@hollandhart.com.

Elizabeth Bastida, lawyer (University of Buenos Aires); Specialisation in Natural Resources Law (University of Buenos Aires (cum laude); LLM in Resources law and Policy (CEPMLP/Dundee; with distinction), PhD (CEPMLP/Dundee) is the Rio Tinto Research Fellow and the Director of the Mining Programme at CEPMLP/Dundee. She has practised law with the firm of Hope, Duggan & Silva in Buenos Aires, with responsibilities in the Mineral and Environmental Law section. She has also been a research fellow at the Institute of Social and Legal Sciences 'Ambrosio Gioja', Law Faculty, University of Buenos Aires, and an external legal consultant to companies, international organisations and various institutions. Her areas of interests include international and comparative resources law, international investment and environmental law, law and development, human rights. E-mail address: e.a.bastida@dundee.ac.uk.

Silvia Bauni is an Argentine lawyer who works as an external mining consultant at present. She is the former Legal Advisor of the Secretariat of Energy and Mining in Argentina and Executive Secretary of the Administration Commission of the Argentine-Chilean Mining Treaty, Argentine Section. E-mail address: sbauni@fibertel.com.ar.

James Boyd, PhD (Wharton Business School, University of Pennsylvania USA) is a Senior Fellow and Director of the Energy and Natural Resources Division of Resources for the Future, Washington, DC. His areas of expertise are in law and economics and regulatory economics, particularly in the environmental area. A particular field of interest is liability law, including analysis of optimal damages, financial responsibility rules, and the impact of liability rules on incentives to innovate. E-mail address: Boyd@rff.org.

Keith Brewer, PhD in Economics (McGill), MA in Economics (Alberta), MA and BA in Physics (Oxford), is Director General of the Economic, Financial and Social Analysis Branch, in Canada's Department of Natural Resources, subsequent to positions with the departments of Environment, Fisheries and Oceans, and the Bedford Institute of Oceanography. He taught Economics at Queen's University, Canada. He now specialises in resource economics and policy, competitiveness, and taxation, and has lectured and conducted seminars widely. E-mail address: kbrewer@NRCan.gc.ca.

Bonnie Campbell, D.Phil (Sussex), Development Studies, MA (Sussex), BA (Toronto), is Professor of Political Economy at the Faculty of Political Science and Law, University of Quebec in Montreal. She has administered research and training programmes for various organisations including the Rockefeller Foundation (New York) and the International Development Research Centre (Ottawa). Former President of the Canadian Association of African Studies, Dr. Campbell has published six volumes including 'Restructuring in Global Aluminium' (Mining Journal Books) with Magnus Ericsson and over 70 scientific articles. Her current interests include institutional reform and governance in Africa; and the political economy of mining in Africa. She is currently (2003-2005) Chair of the Board of Directors of the North-South Institute (Ottawa) and on the Editorial Board of several journals including Review of African Political Economy and Minerals and Energy – Raw Materials Report. Professor Campbell is the Director of the Groupe de recherche sur les activités minières en Afrique, Faculty of Political Science and Law, University of Quebec in Montreal. E-mail address: campbell.bonnie@uqam.ca.

Allen Clark is a Senior Fellow at the East-West Center, Honolulu, Hawaii. E-mail: ClarkA@EastWestCenter.org.

Jennifer Cook Clark, B.S. in Geology (Washington State University, 1977); LLM in International and Comparative Law (Georgetown University Law Center, 1991); JD (Richardson School of Law, University of Hawaii, 1987) is an attorney and a geologist. She is currently in private law practice concentrating on various aspects of mining, natural resources law, indigenous peoples' law, administrative law and mine safety and health. She is also President of PACRIM Resource Development, a private consulting firm of legal consultants, geologists, mineral economists, and mineral finance experts. PACRIM's current projects include assessment of social risk, conducting socio-cultural due diligence assessments and audits of mining projects for governments, private companies and organisations. E-mail address: pacrim@att.net.

Phillip Crowson is currently an Honorary Professor, and a part-time Professorial Research Fellow at CEPMLP/Dundee. Phillip joined the Economics Department of The RTZ Corporation in July 1971, and became the company's Chief Economist in May 1981. He retired from Rio Tinto Limited (then known as RTZ-CRA) at the beginning of 1997. Until his retirement he was a director of several Rio Tinto subsidiaries and he took an active role in many Industry organisations, including the European Copper Institute (Chairman), and the Mining Association of the United Kingdom (President). Phillip Crowson served as an Invited Director of the London Metal Exchange for twelve years until May 2000. He edits the biennial publication 'Minerals Handbook', the ninth edition of which was published in February 1999, and is the author of Inside Mining. The Economics of the Supply and Demand of Minerals and Metals and Astride Mining. Issues and Policies for the Mineral Industries, published by Mining Journal Books. He has written many published papers and articles on aspects of the mineral industries, including contributed chapters to several books, and he also lectures frequently. He sits on the Editorial Advisory Boards of Natural Resources Forum and Raw Materials Report.

Michael Dale, BA (South Africa), LLB (Wits), LLD (South Africa) is a practising Attorney, Notary Public, and Conveyancer, High Court of South Africa and as such a Director in the firm of attorneys Deneys Reitz Inc., Sandton, South Africa. He is a Visiting Professor, School of Law, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, and an Associate at CEPMLP/Dundee. E-mail address: mod@deneysreitz.co.za.

María Cecilia Dalupan is a lawyer and policy specialist affiliated with the sustainability consulting firm, DOMANI, LLC. She recently served with the US Agency for International Development, Philippines, and was the 2001 El Paso Energy Fellow of the Natural Resources Law Centre at the University of Colorado in Boulder where her work focused on multilateral environmental agreements and their implications for the mining sector. Her areas of interest are in energy, climate change, and mining.. E-mail address: mcgdalupan@usa.com.

Alain L. Dangeard is the CEO of MEED SA (Matières Premières. Eau Environnement. Développement), a firm specialised in environmental, minerals and water economics. Alain began his career as a French diplomat and then in the United Nations (U Thant' office). He subsequently took up responsibilities in two environment-related companies, namely the French Bureau of Mines (BRGM) and the French National Agency for Recycling and Waste Disposal (ANRED). He is an external advisor of EUROMINES (the European Association of Mining Industries). He is a member of the European Union working group on sustainable development indicators in the minerals industries. Together with the Paris School of Mines, he has set up in 2002 a research programme associating Indian and French economists on the environmental stakes that are not catered for by existing markets. E-mail address: aldan@wanadoo.fr.

Luke Danielson is currently a Principal at DOMANI LLC consultants, Denver, Colorado USA; former Director of the Mining, Minerals and Sustainable Development (MMSD) Project; Honorary Lecturer at CEPMLP/Dundee. E-mail address: ldanielson@domani-llc.com.

Paulo de Sa, PhD in mineral economics (École des Mines, Paris) is a Lead Industrial Economist at the Oil, Gas, Mining and Chemicals Department of the World Bank. Since joining the World Bank, he has worked extensively in mining sector reforms in Africa and Asia.

Nicolás di Boscio (MSc, London School of Economics) joined the Rio Tinto Economics department in 2001, focusing on the local and regional economic impacts of mining and all aspects related to mining and sustainable economic development. Prior to joining Rio Tinto, he coordinated various development projects in Latin America, both at the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) and the UNDP.

John Donihee is a Research Associate at the Canadian Institute of Resources Law and an Adjunct Professor of Environmental Science at the Faculty of Environmental Design, University of Calgary. He is a member of the bars of Alberta, the Northwest and Nunavut Territories. E-mail address: donihee@telusplanet.net.

Magnus Ericsson (MSc in chemical engineering from the Royal Institute of Technology Stockholm) is managing director and co-founder of the Raw Materials Group (RMG). RMG is one of Europe's leading, independent group of mineral economists and mineral strategy/policy analysts. Since 2002 RMG is responsible for the iron ore statistics and analysis presented by UNCTAD, Geneva. RMG specialises in global analysis of the mining industry starting with an in-house computerised ownership and production statistics. The group publishes the only database specialising in this field: Raw Materials Data. E-mail address: magnus.ericsson@rmg.se.

Colin Filer, PhD in Social Anthropology (University of Cambridge), has taught at the Universities of Glasgow and Papua New Guinea, and was Projects Manager for the University of Papua New Guinea's consulting company from 1991 to 1994, when he left the University to join the PNG National Research Institute as Head of the Social and Environmental Studies Division. Since 2001, he has been the Convenor of the Resource Management in Asia-Pacific Programme at the Australian National University's Research School of Pacific and Asian Studies. E-mail address: cfiler@coombs.anu.edu.au.

Anne Fitzgerald, LLB (Hons., University of Tasmania); LLM in International Business Law (with Merit, University of London); LLM (Columbia University); JSD degree -Doctor of the Science of Law- (Columbia University) is a Principal Lawyer in the Crown Law Office of the Queensland Government's Department of Justice and Attorney General in Brisbane, Queensland, Australia. The book based on her JSD dissertation was published in January 2002 by Prospect Media, an imprint of LexisNexis/Butterworths: Mining Agreements: Negotiated Frameworks in the Australian Minerals Sector. Following her first degree she worked as Associate to the then Chief Justice of Tasmania, Sir Guy Green. Anne has been admitted to legal practice in Queensland (Solicitor, 2000), Victoria (Barrister and Solicitor, 1990) Tasmania (Practitioner, 1985) and is enrolled on the High Court's list of Practitioners (1985). E-mail address: Anne.Fitzgerald@crownlaw.qld.gov.au.

Wanda Hoskin headed UNEP's global mining file (2000-2002). Prior to that she was the A/Director, International Minerals Division at Natural Resources Canada. Wanda has developed policy and is knowledgeable about market access issues, multilateral environmental agreements and the sound management of minerals and metals. Wanda has published numerous articles and has served on a number of Advisory Groups.

David Humphreys, BSc (Econ), PhD (University of Wales) is Chief Economist of Rio Tinto which he joined in 1986. In this capacity he acts as economic advisor to the Board and is responsible for industry analysis for the Group worldwide. David has written and lectured extensively on the economics of the mining and metals industries. Prior to joining Rio Tinto, David worked for nine years in UK government service, for six of these as an advisor on minerals policy.

Michael Hunt, BA, LLB (Hons), Hunt & Humphry, Project Lawyers, Perth, Australia, is one of Australia's pre-eminent resources lawyers and is a past National President of the Australian Mining and Petroleum Law Association. He is author of the books Mining Law in Western Australia and Minerals and Petroleum Laws of Australia (a comprehensive review of all Australian petroleum and mining laws). He wrote the volume 'Energy and Resources' for Halsbury's Laws of Australia. E-mail address: mh@huntandhumphry.com.au.

Latifa Rijal Ibraimo, Diploma in Law (University Eduardo Mondlane, Maputo), LLM in Mineral Law and Policy (CEPMLP/Dundee) is Legal Advisor of CMH – Companhia Moçambicana dos Hidrocarbonetos which she joined in June 2003. In this capacity, she gives legal opinions to the Board and participates in the negotiation of investment agreements. She also acts as legal consultant for services involving legal reform on natural resources (land, minerals, petroleum and water). Before joining CMH, Latifa worked as civil servant and in the last 7 years she held the position of head of licensing department at the National Directorate of Mining; in that capacity, she was involved in the drafting and negotiation of contracts, protocols, and other documents relevant to the licensing of mining activities; she was also involved in the revision of the mining legislation and the petroleum legislation. She was also a member of the Technical Secretariat for the revision of the existing land legislation. E-mail address: Iribraim@tropical.co.mz.

Ricardo Ihnen Becker, lawyer (Universidad Católica de Chile); post-graduate degree in Water Law (Universidad de Atacama); Masters degree in International Natural Resources Law (University of Denver College of Law in Denver, Colorado) practices with the law firm of Edmundo Eluchans & Cía in Santiago, Chile. He obtained the 'Luis Gutiérrez Alliende' award for academic excellence, and he is licensed to practice law in Chile.

Norman Jennings is a Senior Industrial Specialist in the International Labour Office in Geneva with responsibility for the ILO's the mining and basic metals industries. He is particularly concerned with the effects on employment, training and working time effects arising from the restructuring of the mining industry that is taking place in many countries, and with improving health, safety and working conditions in small-scale mines. He is deeply involved in the promotion of the ratification and implementation of the ILO Convention No. 176 on Safety and Health in Mines. E-mail: jennings@ilo.org.

Andrei Konoplyanik, PhD and Doctor of Science in international energy economics (State University of Management, Moscow) is an energy specialist by background. He has researched international energy issues in the Institute of World Economy & International Relations, USSR Academy of Sciences (IMEMO) and in the USSR State Planning Committee (Gosplan). He served as Deputy Minister of Fuel and Energy of Russia with particular responsibility for external economic relations and direct foreign investments. Since 1993 he has worked as an Adviser to a number of Ministries in the Russian government and to the State Duma, where he headed the drafting group preparing legislation on Production Sharing Agreements. In the mid-90's he also worked as an executive director of the Russian Bank for Reconstruction and Development. From 1999 to early 2002 he was President of the Moscow-based Energy and Investment Policy and Project Financing Development Foundation and in that capacity, and as an Adviser to the Russian Ministry of Energy, has contributed to the drafting of the Russian Energy Strategy to 2020. Dr. Konoplianik is a visiting Chief Research Fellow at IMEMO and an Honorary Fellow at CEPMLP/Dundee and at the economic faculty of Aberdeen University.

Alexander Kursky, PhD in Chemistry (Lomonosov State University, Moscow) is an analytical chemistry and geochemistry specialist by background. He also graduated at Mgr in mining law. He has researched precious metals and diamonds geochemistry issues in Central Research Institute of Geological Prospecting for Base and Precious Metals (Moscow). Since 1994 he has worked as a Consultant on precious metals and gemstones at the State Duma Committee for Natural Resources and as an Adviser on Mining and PSA at the State Duma Committee for Industry, Construction, Energy and Transport. Now he is a Head of staff at the State Duma Committee for Industry, Construction and High-Tech. He has been a full member of the Russian Academy of Mining Sciences since 1998. Alexander Kursky is also a member of advisory boards of scientific journals Mineral Resources of Russia, Russian Oil, Gas and Energy Law.

Thierry Lauriol, a Partner with Jeantet Associés law firm, has been admitted at the Paris Bar and is a Professor at the Law School of Amiens at the University of Picardy. E-mail address: tlauriol@jeantet.fr.

Eva Liedholm Johnson (MSc in Surveying, 1983) is a lecturer at the division of Real Estate Planning and Land Law at KTH (Royal Institute of Technology) in Sweden. She has worked on the alteration of property units and property rights both in theory and in practice. Since 1999 she is also a doctoral candidate with special interest in mining law. E-mail address: eva.liedholm.johnson@infra.kth.se.

Michael Lodge, formerly Legal Adviser, International Seabed Authority, is now with OECD, Paris. E-mail address: Michael.LODGE@oecd.org.

Alastair R. Lucas is Professor and Chair of Natural Resources Law at the Faculty of Law and Adjunct Professor of Environmental Science at the Faculty of Environmental Design, University of Calgary. He is also Director of the University of Calgary – Latin American Energy Organisation, Energy and Environmental Law Project. E-mail address: alucas@ucalgary.ca.

Lene Madsen is a senior consultant with Cabinet Stewart, a Brussels-based EU Public Affairs consultancy. Lene works on a variety of issues, including EU policies on mining, environmental policies and waste management. E-mail address: lmadsen@cabinetstewart.com.

Leon Edward Moller, lawyer; PhD (CEPMLP/Dundee) is commercial associate at CEPMLP/ Dundee. He previously worked as a lawyer at the Ministry of Mines and Energy, Namibia. His research mainly focused on the legal regime for the exploitation of offshore mineral resources in Southwestern Africa in view of the international obligations. E-mail address: lemoller@aol.com.

Peter G. Morgan (BSc, FRICS, CEng, MIMMM, FIQ, FGS) is an experienced Mineral Resources Manager, who is a Chartered Mineral Surveyor and Chartered Mining Engineer. He has over 20 years extensive experience in the minerals industry, gained both in the UK and various countries of Africa. He is a Partner in Wardell Armstrong, a firm of international minerals, environmental and engineering consultants based in the UK. E-mail address: pgmorgan@wardell-armstrong.com.

Amaechi Nwokolo, LLB (Hons, UPNG); LLM (CEPMLP/Dundee)'s particular areas of interest are mining law, petroleum industry regulation, and international foreign investment law. E-mail address anwokolo@hotmail.com.

Juan Luis Ossa Bulnes, lawyer (Universidad Católica de Santiago) is a principal Partner of Ossa & Cía. Ltda., which specialises in mining titles, contracts and litigation. He serves as a legal counsellor to Sociedad Nacional de Minería (the association of private mining entrepreneurs operating in Chile) and various mining companies, both domestic and foreign, and has been an international consultant on the modernisation of mining legislations in Bolivia, Argentina, Ecuador, Mozambique and Colombia. He is a Professor of Mining Law at the School of Law of Universidad Católica de Santiago, promoted the creation and is the current president of 'Latin American Mining Lawyers', an informal and open association of attorneys specialised in mining law from the Latin American region. He is the editor of 'Foro Minero', a magazine published by 'Latin American Mining Lawyers' in www.amla-forominero.org which includes some papers in English. He was a member of the commission responsible for drafting the Chilean Mining Code of 1983 and associated regulations. Juan Luis Ossa is the author of several specialised publications, including the treatise on Mining Law published by Editorial Jurídica de Chile in 1988, 1992 and 1999, which was the first and most complete analysis of the present Chilean mining legislation. E-mail address: jlossa@tie.cl.

Olle Östensson is Chief of the Information and Risk Management Section, Commodities Branch, of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD). At present, most of his mining related work concerns governance issues with respect to the mining industry, including the local and regional impact of mining projects.

James Otto holds joint appointments as Director of the Institute for Global Resources Policy and Management at the Colorado School of Mines and Director of Graduate Studies, University of Denver College of Law Natural Resources and Environmental Law Programme. He holds degrees in law, mineral economics and engineering. He has worked for multilateral agencies, governments and mining companies in over forty nations on matters relating to mining policy, laws and taxation. His books and studies on mining taxation and regulation have become standard references for many governments and companies.

Johann Christian Pielow, studies of law (Universities of Münster and Lausanne); PhD Dr. iur) and Professor, has been a Senior Research Fellow at the Institute of Mining and Energy Law of the University of Bochum; professors degree ('Habilitation') 1998; substitutions of chairs for public law in Bonn, Cologne, Munich and Dresden. Since 2003 he is a Professor of Economic Law at the Faculty of Economic Sciences of the University of Bochum, and since 2004 he is the Director of the Institute of Mining and Energy Law, Bochum <www.ruhr-uni-bochum.de/ibe>. E-mail address: ibe@ruhr-uni-bochum.de.

George (Rock) Pring, BA (Hons., Harvard); JD (Hons., Michigan) is Professor of Law, University of Denver College of Law, where he teaches, writes, and consults in the Environmental, International Environmental, Natural Resources, Constitutional, and Government Administrative Law and Policy fields. He is also an Adjunct Professor in the Environmental Engineering graduate school, Colorado School of Mines. E-mail address: rpring@law.du.edu.

Robert Pritchard is a senior Partner of Resources Law International of Sydney, Australia. He is a specialist consultant to governments and private sector corporations on energy and mining law, policy and regulation. He is an honorary associate of the CEPMLP/Dundee. In 1982-83, he was the first Chairman of the International Bar Association's Section on Energy and Natural Resources Law. He is a member of the Finance Committee of the World Energy Council. E-mail address: robert@resourceslaw.net.

Cecilia Siac is Managing Partner of Toronto-based Tormina Consulting Inc. She is a lawyer called to the Madrid and Buenos Aires Bars; she has been providing advice and rendering consulting services to mining companies, governments, underwriters and major law firms for the past 14 years in connection with acquisitions and divestitures, IPOs, privatisation of state-owned mining concerns/public tenders, licensing, staking and permitting, mineral and mining titles and legal opinions, legal audits, due diligence review processes for international financing of mining projects, negotiation and drafting of royalty/option/joint-venture and other agreements relating to exploration and mining, international government procurement and construction of industrial works contracts, dispute settlement, and so on. She is a World Bank consultant advising on mineral and mining titles and agreements and public mining registries in francophone Africa. Cecilia is an Honorary Associate of the CEPMLP/Dundee. She is listed in the 2000-2002 publication 'An International Who's Who of Mining Lawyers'. E-mail address: csiac@mail.com.

Linda Siegele, BA Williams (Geology); MBA Cornell; MSA North-eastern; JD Denver, worked as a tax consultant in the St. Petersburg, Russia, office of PricewaterhouseCoopers for seven years, advising foreign corporations on strategies for inward investment and plans a career in international environmental law. She is currently obtaining an LL.M in Environmental Law from the University College London. E-mail address: lsiegele03@law.du.edu.

Richard Tinsley is President of International Advisory & Finance, a worldwide network of project finance boutiques <www.iaf.biz>. He is usually resident in Sydney, Australia. E-mail address: rt@iaf.biz.

Marla Valdez is the Managing Partner of Denton Wilde Sapte's Central Asia Practice. She founded both of the firm's offices in Kazakhstan and Uzbekistan and has resided full-time in Central Asia since 1993. Ms. Valdez has over 15 years advising mining clients and is recognised as a mining specialist. Ms. Valdez has negotiated and prepared host government mineral contracts, exploration and production licenses, joint venture agreements and stock and asset purchase and sale agreements among others. She also is experienced in direct and indirect investment structures, project financing, legal due diligence, environmental, licensing and other regulatory matters. Ms. Valdez has written numerous articles on subsurface legislation in Central Asia. She is a member of RMMLF, AIPN, IBA and IMPS and, in Kazakhstan, is a Board member of European Business Association of Kazakhstan and an external adviser to the Kazakhstan Petroleum Association. E-mail address: almaty@dentonwildesapte.com.

V.V. Veeder, QC MA. (Cantab); practising from London as an arbitrator in transnational trade; Member of the United Kingdom's Department of Trade and Industry Advisory Committee on the Law of Arbitration; Chairman of the Board and Vice-President of the London Court of International Arbitration; Member of the Institute of the International Chamber of Commerce; Fellow of the Institute of Advanced Legal Studies; Member of the Council of Queen Mary and Westfield College, London University; Bencher of the Inner Temple; and General Editor of 'Arbitration International'.

Hans-Werner Wabnitz, law degree (Assessor, Baden-Wuerttemberg), Doctor Juris (Freiburg), Comparative Law Degree (Strasbourg), LLM (Tulane); admitted to the bar in Duesseldorf, worked as Senior Counsel in the Africa Division of the Legal Department of the World Bank in Washington, DC, since 1992 until 2004. He was in charge of Francophone countries in Africa and the Democratic Republic of Congo (former Zaire). In the mid-1980s he served over seven years as legal and financial advisor to the High Commissioner of the Senegal River Organisation (OMVS) in Dakar, Senegal. From 1987 to 1982 he served as project manager with the Saudi Industrial Development Fund (SIDF) in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia. Hans began his career as legal counsel with Simonbank KG in Duesseldorf, Germany, where he became Syndikus (Chief Counsel) in 1975. He returned to Dusseldorf before joining the World Bank as Chief Counsel of BfG from 1989 to 1992.

Thomas Wälde, Law Degree (Frankfurt), LLM (Harvard), Dr. iur. (Frankfurt, s.c.l.) is the Professor of International Economic, Natural Resources and Energy Law at CEPMLP/Dundee. After law practice and a research fellowship with the Institute for International Economic Law in Frankfurt, he worked for various UN agencies (Centre on Transnational Corporations, UNIDO, Natural Resources and Energy Division), until 1990 as the UN Interregional Adviser on International Investment Policy and Petroleum/Mineral Legislation. Since 1991 and until 2001 he was the Executive Director of CEPMLP/Dundee. He currently runs TWA, his private consultancy firm, which provides advisory services in natural resources and energy law, regulatory reform, investment promotion, state enterprise/agency appraisal and restructuring, privatisation, contract assessment, negotiation and dispute management. He is a specialist on international investment arbitration. In 1995, he was awarded by the European Commission the first 'Jean-Monnet Chair on European Economic and Energy Law' in a Europe-wide competition; he has served as visiting professor, assessor for professorial appointments and PhD examiner in the UK and various countries. E-mail address: twwalde@aol.com.

Janeth Warden-Fernández, LLB (Hons), Dipl. Public Law, LLM in Resources Law and Policy (with Distinction, CEPMLP/Dundee) is an advisor to the Mining Programme at CEPMLP/Dundee and the manager of the CEPMLP's new Distance Learning Programme. She is also responsible for the Transnational Simulation Exercise, which is held every year in coordination with the Washington College of Law, American University (Washington DC). Janeth is a member of the Collaborative Group on Artisanal & Small Scale Mining (CASM) Expert Advisory Group, and a former external Consultant for the UNCTAD within its project on Sustainable Development in Resource-Based Economies: Capacity Building and Policy Networking in Africa and Latin America. She contributed as a consultant for the International Institute of Environment and Development (IIED) for its MMSD project. Her research interests include mineral law and policy, human rights and international business. She is Editorial Assistant in mining for the Journal of Energy and Natural Resources Law. Janeth is currently pursuing research towards obtaining a PhD. E-mail address: j.z.wardenfernandez@dundee.ac.uk.

John Williams is a Partner in the Washington, DC law firm Duncan & Allen, specialising in energy and natural resource law. He has advised The World Bank and the mining authorities of countries in Africa (Angola, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Madagascar and Nigeria), Asia (Lao PDR, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyz Republic and Mongolia), South America (Bolivia, Ecuador and Venezuela) and the Middle East (Saudi Arabia) on the development of policies, legislation, regulations and agreements to stimulate environmentally sound foreign and domestic private investment in the mining sector. E-mail address: JPW@DuncanAllen.com.

Anida Yupari, lawyer, Master Degree in Latin American Integration (University of São Paulo); Master Degree in Humanitarian Action (University of Geneva); studies in The Hague Academy of International Law and in the University for Peace, has worked in areas dealing with International Environmental Law and Human Rights, particularly in matters related to mining and hydrocarbons, indigenous peoples and economic sustainable development. She is a consultant to private institutions and international organisations, such as the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) and the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (CEPAL). E-mail address: ayupari@hotmail.com.